

Email Communication Best Practices

- Mark Nexion as a trusted sender
- Mark Nexion emails as “not spam”
- Open communications and interact/click.
- Click on the “Always display images from this address.”
- Add Nexion’s from address to your email address book.
- For Gmail contacts, “mark as important” to ensure Nexion communications continue to go to your inbox.

NOTE: Nexion Travel Group highly recommends using a professional email domain and avoiding using free email accounts such as AOL, Hotmail, Yahoo, etc. Click here for more information on using a professional email address.

Did you opt out by mistake?

- STEP 1: Update your email preferences under the Email Preference Center:
<http://www.pages02.net/nexion/NexionPrefCenter2019/>

The Email Preference link can be found under myNexion>Nexion Hub>Marketing Tools>The Marketing Vault

- STEP 2: Email marketing@nexion.com to complete the process – Subject: Email Support

EMAIL PREFERENCE CENTER

Enter the email you use for Nexion communications

PLEASE UPDATE YOUR EMAIL PREFERENCES. Please note that opting out of any of the below communications will result in you missing out on preferred partner promotions, preferred partner latest news, marketing releases and updates, business development and education communications, including upcoming events and training opportunities, and other important information.

Business Development and Education Communications

These communications include the training newsletter, upcoming virtual training opportunities, and event updates.

Yes No

Targeted Marketing Emails

These communications include targeted emails from the various Nexion departments, marketing releases, and updates, engagement program emails, as well as single preferred partner communications.

Yes No

Preferred Supplier Partner Special Offers

These communications include multi-supplier emails, including the weekly featured deals email, travel partner of the month communications, and cruise block alert emails among other important preferred partner communications.

Yes No